

The Data Management Plan: Putting policy into practice

Friday, August 8, 2008, 9:30am – 4:30pm
Gryphon Gallery, University of Melbourne

9:00am Registration
Session chair: Adrian Burton
9.30am	Welcome and introduction	Linda O'Brien, Vice Principal, Information and CIO, The University of Melbourne
9.45am	The legal issues in data management: a practical approach	Professor Anne Fitzgerald, OAK Law Project, Queensland University of Technology
10:15am	Data management plans: from idea to reality	Markus Buchhorn, Director, ICT Environments, The Australian National University & Mark Euston, Graduate Student & GILP Trainer
10.40am	Break
Session chair: David Groenewegen
11.10am	What's happening at: The University of Queensland The University of Melbourne Monash University The University of Otago TARDIS (Monash University)	Belinda Weaver, Manager, UQ eSpace, The University of Queensland Lyle Winton, Senior Research Support Officer (Research) University of Melbourne Suzanne Clarke, Director, Information Resources, Monash University Library Gillian Elliot, Biodiversity Project Co-ordinator, University of Otago Library Ashley Buckle, NHMRC Senior Research Fellow, Faculty of Medicine & Victorian Bioinformatics Consortium, Monash University
12:30pm Lunch
1:15pm	Discussion groups 1. The legal and policy setting 2. Processes for data management planning 3. Making it work
Session chair: Jim Richardson
2:45pm	Reporting back by group leaders
3.30pm	Discussion
4:00pm	Summing up	Dr Andrew Treloar, Director, Australian National Data Service Establishment Project
4:20pm	Reflections and implications for the future	Dr Rhys Francis, Executive Director, AeRIC
4:30pm	Close	